SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 23
25 October - 1 November 1965

I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. The article on Soviet culture and literature from the New Yorker which DDP recommended has been reproduced and is available to the CT course. Although it is lengthy it is the best current information we have seen in this field.

2. [REDACTED] will lunch again this week with the [REDACTED] to provide the final briefing. [REDACTED] have given the [REDACTED] desk additional information to answer a number of the questions the desk sent us last week. [REDACTED] the desk man, was also advised where to seek answers we couldn't provide.

3. [REDACTED] asked that [REDACTED] accompany Phillip G. M. Gilbert, the Assistant Director-General of the ASIO to lunch Wednesday, to provide some respite from the FE personnel who are his constant hosts. This luncheon will be separate from [REDACTED] party.

4. In terms of background and understanding on the part of the students, the level of the special NPIC Introduction to Communism course we are currently conducting is well below that of our regular students. We are therefore taking a very basic approach. Class interest and participation have been high.
